ELECTION DIRECTORS REPORT:

Absentee ballot applications went out and are being returned and we are processing them. We have also received undeliverable applications back. Any updates that are on them we will process.

Metro West update – We had a walk through again along with Mr. Keith Ross from SBE. As said before the Administration has some issues with the location.

Warehouse – Two tractor trailers have been delivered so that we can use them to store supplies to clear up space in the warehouse because we are just out of room. As of right now we are planning to have election night and scanning being done at the warehouse but we are still working through the logistics on it.

Ms. Fisher asked Mr. Jones where the election judges’ classes will be held. He said Mt. Pleasant and we are negating with The Forum.

PRESIDENTS REMARKS

No remarks but Ms. Smith was surprised to see the absentee ballot applications come out so early.

ASSISTANT ATTORNEY GENERAL’S REPORT:

Mr. Dunklow reported on the redistricting and that there are multiple law suits being filed. We are in a wait and see mode while waiting on the outcome of the litigation.

Mr. Dunklow also reported that he received a promotion and will be leaving us as our attorney. His last date will be February 23, 2022 but is leaving us in good hands of Mr. Thomas Chapman.

The Board all wished Mr. Dunklow well.
